WORCESTER/BREDEKLOOF REGIONAL YOUNG
WINE SHOW 2019 RESULTS

The Breede Valley Celebrates The Finest Young Wines at The 2019 Regional Young Wine Show

Yesterday was Worcester and Bredekloof Wine Valley's turn to brag about their young wines at the 187th regional young wine show that took place at Eagle's Cliff in Worcester. The South African Young Wine Show has been offering winemakers the opportunity to brag about their wines and various wine-making techniques, styles and new cultivars as early as 1833, which makes it one of the oldest wine shows in the world.

Breedekloof and Worcester trophy winners of the 187th annual Regional Young Wine Show

The 2019 Worcester/Breedekloof regional show brought along with it a grand total 354 entries, where 14 wine cellars took part. From all entries received, our regional show received 2 gold awards, 153 award silver and 102 received bronze.

In addition, our region received a grand total of 54 class winners, which are all selected from our gold and silver award winners. The class winners are exemplary wines in their categories, and these class winners are then considered for the various regional trophies. Only the Grand Champion (Alice Malan) trophy is selected from the gold award winners.

Quintin v/d Westhuizen from Cilmor Wines takes the Enartis S.A. Trophy For Champion for his Wooded Sauvignon Blanc

Paul Burger receiving the Beveratec Trophy For Champion: Dry White Blend from Nuy Winery, wins with A Chenin Blanc/Chardonnay

Albie Treurnicht from Stettyn Family Vineyards is receiving the Maurivin Trophy For Champion: Shiraz, wins with their wooded Shiraz

Winemaker Chris Geldenhuys from Aan de Doorns receives the Protea Chemicals Trophy For Champion: Port

A special shout out and a hearty Congratulations from all of us on the Worcester Wine Route to all our trophy winners and to your winemaking teams. You make Worcester very proud and we look forward in seeing the future developments of these award winning wines. We also want to congratulate the following wine cellars from the Bredekloof Wine Valley for the winning of your trophies; Badsberg, Slanghoek, Botha Cellar, UniWines and Merwida .

Once again we also would like to say a very big thank you to our sponsor Vinochem, as well as Eagle's Cliff for hosting the event!

The 2019 regional show is organised by Worcester Wine & Olive Route which is part of the local build up to the South African National Young Wine Show. The National results will be announced on Saturday, August 24, 2019 at a gala event at the Angora Stud Farm outside Robertson.
